BENNETT DEBUNKED

Omits Money Reform

An Editorial

"Permit me to issue and control the money of a nation, and I care not who makes its laws."—Mayor Anselm Rothschild.

AFTER five years of ruthless deflation imposed by Premier Bennett, the people of Canada are now promised a "reform" program. The Prime Minister promises in return for another five years of office, to ease in spots the burden he has imposed on the public. Faced with the indignation of bankrupt cities and provinces, and with a million people on the wretched dole, he seeks to avert fate by offering reform.

The one basic reform needed—a reform that would make all other reforms superfluous—is reform of our Monetary System. Mr. Bennett has carefully omitted that from his program. Nay he did worse. Before ever he brought out his conjurer's bag of tricks, he used his partisan position to shackle Canada to a pernicious and oppressive system of private monetary control.

THE god of this world has blinded the eyes of Mr. Bennett. His worship of "sound money" and of the gold standard has corrupted his ability to serve the Canadian people. Sacred to him are the $375,000,000 of tax-exempt, blood-stained war bonds whose "sanctity of contract" he upholds to the profit of the owners, though men who fought overseas while the profiteers grew rich are in want, and a million of our people are subsisting on the dole or living like animals in concentration camps.

While Mr. Bennett orates, business men, workers and farmers are being robbed by "sound money" of a chance to prosper; wages are cut till the blood runs out; thousands of frugal people see their homes and farms seized for taxes or swept into the rapacious maw of mortgages; factories are idle; real estate is valueless and merchants are being driven bankrupt through inability to collect accounts.

We have had four years of such suffering as should have moved the heart of any man. Yet our rotund Premier from his luxurious suite or his palatial private car, with a word of sympathy to offer, "Tighten your belts." "Learn to live like your forefathers," was the harsh advice. Youth was told it was "too choosy." University graduates were loftily adjured to seek pick and shovel jobs. When bankrupt municipalities—made bankrupt by Mr. Bennett's "sound money" rule—laid their difficulties before him, they were told with grandiloquent pomposity, "I will not be a well-to-do one of all the derelicts of Canada."

For all his recent blarney of anguished sentiments over the other, Mr. Bennett's blarney is revealed as a mere loud-speaker for the grasping, predatory financial racketeers who control Canada through control of its monetary system. St. James Street may well snicker when Mr. Bennett takes to the air.

IF MR. BENNETT wants to do something for the people of Canada, or if he wants to prove the sincerity of his eleventh hour conversion, he can easily do it. Let him include monetary reform in his program. Let him take back from the private group to whom he gave it, the control of the currency and credit of the nation. Let him take action at once to ensure that the Bank of Canada shall be owned and controlled by the government in the interest of the people of Canada. Without that basic reform, all his professions are but windy platitudes, without worth or meaning.

Without reform of the money system of the nation, to make it serve the public instead of bleeding it, the people of Canada cannot hope to enjoy the super-abundance of good things now heaped up in warehouses or undergoing destruction. Money is needed to set our distribution system at work again. But it is against the welfare of the credit-mongers, now entrusted with the control of our money system, to allow money to become sufficient again.

In Great Britain the fight to free the nation from the sinister clutch of the money power is being led by leaders of the Established Church as part of their mission for mankind. In Canada, from Montreal to Vancouver, the people have spoken in their municipal elections, demanding monetary freedom. The forces of special privilege are organized to oppose the emancipation of the nation from their bondage. And Mr. Bennett has fought their fight for them, to keep the nation from obtaining control of its own money and credit. These money-barons know the truth of the words uttered by the founder of the House of Rothschild:

"Permit me to issue and control the money of a nation, and I care not who makes its laws."

EFFORTS to cut off the demand for monetary reform with a cloud of inky eloquence will not deceive the enlightened. Above everything else Canada needs a publicly controlled monetary system, adequate to the nation's needs.

It comes down to this: Mr. Bennett must either reform the monetary system of Canada, or stand revealed as a mis-leader of the people, prostituting his abilities as a special pleader, in the interest of the money-lords who are holding back progress in Canada.

BRITAIN BIRTH RATE GROWING

LONDON, Jan. 24.—The first noticeable increase in the birth-rate for Britain in the past 14 years occurred last year. It was learned today that the figures show an increase of 4 per 1,000 compared with 1933. There was a slight increase over 1932 but it was so small as to be officially negligible. The 1934 increase is considered as the first real increase since 1920.

DEFINITE details were not available here but it is believed that the birth rate reached 24.5 per 1,000 in the north-west of Britain. A narrow escape from death or injury was reported by a woman living near North Bend, south of the airport, who jumped the track and slipped 15 feet from the Frazer river. None of the crew was injured.

JIMMY WARD GOES HOME

WARD was released from a Boston hospital a few hours before he was released from the Boston Maroons. Dr. Martin Croft, Boston Bruins team physician, determined Ward was not seriously injured in his collision with Eddie Shore, Boston star, in the National Hockey League clash here Tuesday night.

X-rays failed to show serious head injuries and Ward said he felt "fine" when he left Boston. It was expected he would enter a hospital in Montreal for observation before resuming his duties on the ice.

Rail Lines Blocked By Storm

CALGARY, Jan. 24.—A "blast" train has been found after three days of isolation, hemmed in by giant snow drifts on the Brookmore-Spencer's Bridge line of the Canadian Pacific railway.

LAST reported through Brookmore, 36 miles from Nelson, B.C., the train No. 11, was freed from the snow-blockade in Wednesday, according to meagre reports received here today. A rotary plow got through to the stalled train.

Fears for the safety of the passengers on train No. 11 had been lessened when it became known they would have meat, food supply. Preparations were underway to dispatch airplanes from Victoria or Vancouver to drop supplies for the relief of the stranded passengers.

Feasibility at the coast prevented start of the flight Wednesday. Late in the day railway officials received word the train had been freed.

Bruno Held Fast: Guards Are Vigilant

FLEMINGTON, N. J., Jan. 24.—Counsel for Bruno Richard Hauptmann moved for a direct verdict of acquittal as soon as court convened this afternoon. Judge Trenchard denied the motion.

Bruno Richard Hauptmann took the stand today to deny his participation in the kidnapping of the Lindbergh baby.

The state called three of the first of the defense witnesses appeared at the afternoon session. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Christian Frederick, owners of the bakery where Mrs. Hauptmann lived; Mrs. Kloppe, a friend of Hauptmann, who joined him in Pleasant Hope, N.J., in the summer following the kidnapping.

The end of the state's evidence came just before court's noon recess with Arthur Koehler, wood chisel maker, testifying that part of the Lindbergh kidnaping for which had been collected for murder or for the collection of the $20,000 ransom and his testimony was suspended temporarily to permit examination of two witnesses from New York.

The court was jammed for the afternoon session. Three of the defense witnesses appeared at the afternoon session. They were: Mr. and Mrs. Christian Frederick, owners of the bakery where Mrs. Hauptmann lived; Mrs. Kloppe, a friend of Hauptmann, who joined him in Pleasant Hope, N.J., in the summer following the kidnapping.

GRIMSBY, England, Jan. 24.—After drifting badly damaged and helpless in a violent gale off the rocky coast of Iceland, the trawler Wibba was believed to have gone down today with its crew of 14.

RETRENCHMENT HALT IS SEEN IN ESTIMATES

Main Appropriations Less Than Million Dollars Short of 1934

OTTAWA, Jan. 24.—Mounting government revenues during the present fiscal year were reflected in the main estimates for the fiscal year 1935-36 tabled in the house of commons Wednesday by Minister of Finance E. N. Rhodes. The main estimates for next year are less than $1,000,000 short of last year's total appropriations which marks a halt in the downward trend of government expenditures in recent years.

RESERVE'S P.C. PAY CUT

Mr. Rhodes had good news for government employees. When he tabled the estimates, he announced one half of their 10 per cent salary reduction would be restored. This means that for the next year civil servants will receive their normal salaries less five per cent instead of less 10 per cent as has been the case for the last year. Since 1930 until now declining revenues forced the government to curtail expenses. Each year amounts appropriated by parliament have shown large decreases compared with the previous year. The increase is $4,500,000, which is almost offset by a reduction in interest on the public debt of $4,150,000 due to refunding maturing obligations at lower interest rates.

DEPARTMENT INCREASES

Naval, militia and air services received increased appropriations with the Royal Canadian Air Force receiving a vote of $5,000,000, an increase of $700,000 over last year. The increase for civil aviation, militia and naval services are small. The post office department receives an increase of $500,000 for railways and canals, $250,000 for trade and commerce, $200,000 for agriculture and fisheries.

LESS COMMITTEES

The latter decrease is accounted for largely by a drop in the number of committees of House of Commons. Last session was remarkable for a large number of committees holding long sessions. This session the work of the committees is expected to be much less and the appropriation is cut from $155,000 to $130,000.

ERADICATION OF CITY FIRE HAZARD URGED

Fire Marshal With Health Officer Cooperates for Improvements

"Unplanned tinder boxes, awaiting only a chance fire in one of them to develop a spreading fire that would reach out to the newer sections of the city are to be found in many localities within Edmonton," said Fire Marshal John Booth, who, in company with Dr. R. B. Jenkins, medical officer of health, addressed the council of the Chamber of Commerce, Wednesday noon, on the advisability of a thorough survey of all substantial houses throughout the city as a prevention of fire hazards and the reduction of preventable disease.

The report submitted by Dr. Jenkins and Fire Marshal Booth was the result of a recent visit made by a joint committee of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce and the Construction Council of Canada to inspect the city's fire hazards and to make a survey of substantial houses within the city made with a view to the commencement of an improved housing scheme.

NEED CONCERTED EFFORT

Stressing the need for such bodies as the Chamber of Commerce to exert every effort in the matter of fire prevention, Fire Marshal Booth pointed out that enthusiastic effort was needed to get the finest form of public service.

FORM FIRE COMMITTEE

A continuance of the present policy with the "tinder boxes" in business and residential areas, neglect to bring about reduced interest rates, and continued neglect to fight for markets for Alberta products, he concluded, "contributing factors to the state of collapse now being experienced."

INTEREST EATS REVENUE

"Probably the most impressive fact is that 45.74 per cent of the provincial revenues, (domestic subsidies, taxes, licenses, liquor profits, etc., etc.) were spent last year to pay the interest on the public debt, leaving only 54.26 per cent for the revenue for the year of government and the various social services so sorely needed by the people during these times. And probably the next most impressive fact is that it is taking more and more each year to carry the provincial debt, leaving less and less for the administration of government and the various social services."

DEBT CHARGES GROW

"This condition of affairs is one that is taking more and more each year to carry the provincial debt, leaving less and less for the administration of government and the various social services."

THE PERCENTAGES, HOWEVER, DO NOT TELL THE WHOLE STORY

"The percentages, however, do not tell the whole story. The money invested in the telephone system, which is treated in the main estimates as a capital expenditure, is not included in the percentages. It appears that the total debt charges last year were equal to 53 per cent of the revenue, leaving only 47 per cent for government service."

THIS APPEARS IN THIS YEAR'S DEBT CHARGES FOR FISCAL YEAR ENDING MARCH 31, 1935.

General Debt $6,450,300.85
Telephone System 1,127,712.18
Total $7,578,013.03

REVENUE OVER $15,000,000

"The revenue from all sources during the same fiscal year was $15,077,000. Notwithstanding the hard times, the money collected from the people last year was as much as it was four and five years ago. There has been no let-up in the money demanded year by year during the depression. The cost of carrying the debt in 1934 was $2,712,181, approximately equivalent to the entire revenue from all sources collected by the Stewart government in the year 1921. Thus, if the Reid government had had only the revenues collected by the Stewart government of 1921, it could have done nothing more but pay the debt charges and their own salaries, leaving not a cent for government or social or other services."

GLIMPSING SELECT

"But taking the government's own figures, and its own system of accounting, we find the most glaring evidence of neglect of our funds."

THE PERCENTAGES, HOWEVER, DO NOT TELL THE WHOLE STORY

SEWING TRADE WORKERS ARE VICTIMIZED

Mass Buying Probe Hears Reports of Special Investigators

OTTAWA, Jan. 24.—A growing of piece-work rates, open violations of the minimum wage law and the great increase in part-time employment, which is "raising the security of the wage earner," were the factors contributing mostly to the "severe damage" to the sewing trade workers in Toronto, Miss Winifred Hutchinson, special lecturer in Social Science at Toronto University, told the Royal Commission on Mass Buying Wednesday.

"One old of women's dress designers, accustomed in prosperous years to salaries of $60 to $75 a week, now earning anything up to the minimum wage of $12.50, occasionally less."

ALL POORLY PAID

"We saw one dress operator pay envelope, the largest amount for a week being $10.15 for which she was working 40 hours."

Most of 36 women employed in one plant only two earned from $11 to $12 a week.

In the factory of one department store girls were receiving as little as $10 a week.

"SMART" PAY RAISE

"One of them stated that after a halt of the minimum wage office in September, the average received $12.50 for one week, owing to a rise in piece-work rates on all orders," said Miss Hutchinson. "How in the world these orders of goods were finished piece work rates of 'dressed back' again."

FLOORS HAD HIT

Seasonal fluctuations in trade were largely responsible for bad conditions, said Miss Hutchinson. Many more orders were going to Quebec, where wages generally were lower than in Ontario. One Toronto manufacturer told the investigators 60 per cent of the men in the trade were making not more than $10.00 per week on average. Between 1923 and 1929 there had been a 50 per cent increase.

PICKWORK "RACE"

Miss Hutchinson told of bitter complaints from girls that in selling piece-work rates a dispatch was used in some plants and the fastest girl employed to conduct the test.

PERENNIAL FLAG DEBATE HOLDS FLOOR

Main Issues Stand Aside While Private Members 'Hold Floor'

OTTAWA, Jan. 24.—The endless question whether Canada should have a distinctive flag will be discussed by members of the cabinet in an effort to end a debate that waxed back and forth for three hours in the house of commons Wednesday with no solution in sight.

When a series of Ontario Conservatives took the floor yesterday in opposition to a motion by C. H. Dickson (Ont. Nainimo), to strike a new Canadian flag with the Union Jack as a conspicuous center, secretary of state Charles H. Cahan appeared in the role of spokesman.

He said this question had been talked out two or three times and rather than repeat that unproductive talk, he would discuss the subject with the cabinet colleagues and report back to the house.

Hollywood Gossip

INTIMATE GLIMPSES AND INSIDE STUFF ON THE MOVIE COLONY
By DAN THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 24—Easy come, easy go. So says one of our best-known producers and it certainly is proved correct by Hollywood's numerous film celebrities whose gold affairs through their fingers like sand through an hour glass.

Of course, there are some among the famous movie folk who will take exception to that "easy come, easy go" phrase. However, that is a matter of opinion.

Personally, I think that incomes of from $150,000 to $200,000 yearly, earned for five or six months actual work, come pretty easy. And since the opening of the Santa Anita race track near here, they are going even easier.

For years the film crowd has wanted horse racing in Southern California. What fun—and what a chance to clean up some spare cash, is the expression I have heard on all sides.

Well, they have their horse racing now, also their fun. But the spare cash seems to be going out rather than coming in.

Observations made during several visits to the race track have indicated that the movie folk aren't exactly lucky betters.

For instance, Clark Gable, Robert Montgomery, Gloria Swanson, Chester Morris, Otto Kruger, Joan Crawford, Norma Shearer, and several others of the M-G-M crowd all visited the track the other day for the purpose of backing Gable's horse, Beverly Hills, rather heavily, and Beverly Hills ran seventh!

CAMPUS GROUP HEARS ADDRESS BY DR. HARDY

Capitalism Outlined With Needs For Reforms

Any mode of governmental reform which fails to recognize that machine production has radically changed the fundamental basis of the economic system under which we live must ultimately fail. Dr. W. G. Hardy, of the University of Alberta, addressed the students of the Capitalism League at the University of Alberta last night at the Strand theatre, in the most satisfying production.

Tearing at the heart strings with its human appeal, stirring the pulse with its tense drama and flooding the soul with its ecstatic love story, the RKO-Radio Picture, "Romance in Manhattan," which opened last night at the Strand theatre, is one of the most satisfying productions.

The largest political group of students to ever attend an extra-curricular meeting heard the lecture.

In Vicious Circle

"Modern capitalism is operating in a vicious circle," said Dr. Hardy. "Decrease in buying power results in lessening the amount of production machinery in use. This, in turn, causes increasing unemployment, which further decreases buying power."

Comparing prevailing depression economic conditions to depressions of classical and semi-modern times, Dr. Hardy stated that the latter had been ended by discovery of new markets. So new fields for disposal of excess products exist today and if they did not would be the objects of such fierce international competition as war would result.

Differing Ills

"Modern ills differ from preceding ones in three respects," asserted Dr. Hardy. "First we are living in a world of interdependence. The number will be centered around a revival of Irving Berlin's great song 'Milk and Honey' introduced in the Ziegfeld 'Follies' of 1919 with Marilyn Van and Schenck and Bert Williams.

The minstrel show and its interplay of a ship's career, participated in the concept of modernity. Eddie has the help of Ann Sothern, Ethel Merman, Norman, and George Murphy in the song.

"That modern capitalism requires that the reform which is significant of the seriousness of the situation. However, what the government and its opposition has to offer is not as clearly defined as is desirable. A series of measures to restrict competitive capitalism and a program social welfare legislation appears to be the present extent of capitalistic reform."

"It is significant that these restrictions and social welfare proposals are contrary to the fundamental concepts of the capitalistic system. Fascism, the last of the spasms of capitalism, said the class professor.

Apparently gambling instinct just doesn't go with artistic temperament. Following up the information given at the race track, I did a little sleuthing around other gambling spots and learned that the movie game nearly always loses.

PROVINCE MUST TAKE LEAD ON SLOT MACHINES

Slot machine will be allowed to operate in Edmonton until such time as the provincial government enacts legislation to prohibit its operation, if a recommendation of the civic bylaws committee made Wednesday meeting with the approval of the city council will consider this matter at its special meeting.

At Wednesday's meeting City Solicitor Thos. Gaudin submitted a bylaw which prohibits the operation of slot machines. The committee proposes that this bylaw be passed but that no step be taken to put it into effect until a provincial ruling is handed down.

RAILWAYS ASK FOR CUTS IN ASSESSMENT

Largest Claims Argued Wednesday Before Revision Court

Two of the largest assessment appeals were heard by the city court of revision Wednesday afternoon when the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Canadian National Railways asked for reductions in both land and building valuations.

D. C. Clapperton, K.C., of Calgary, spoke for the C.P.R., while R. N. Nichols, assistant tax commissioner of Winnipeg, represented the C.N.R.

All the C.P.R.'s 1933 assessments were confirmed by the court, with the exception of a reduction from $7,200 to $6,000, on three lots in the company's North Side depot property.

The C.N.R.'s case was laid over until the company's representative secures more information from City Assessor Thomas Walker. This appeal is scheduled to be heard again Friday.

"EXCESSIVE—ILLEGAL." Calling assessments made by the city on depot and truckage property to be "excessive and illegal," Clapperton declared that low-lying land north of the C.P.R. station was "valued for any purpose and should not be valued at more than $50 an acre."

"No acreage within the city limits is worth less than $200 an acre," Mayor Clarke replied. "The assessment on the C.P.R. station is $17,200, and the building assessment is $78,200. Land within the city limits is valued at $17,200, and the building assessment is $78,200."

The South Side railway yards, comprising 7.6 acres, is valued at $17,200, and the building assessment is $78,200. The city limits of the C.P.R. and the city limits of the C.N.R. are valued at $17,200, and the building assessment is $78,200.

"C.N.R. CASE HEARD." Land and building valuations exceeding the million dollar mark were heard by the city court of revision on behalf of the C.N.R. The ten-year agreement between the railway company and the city, which provided the combined assessment for land and buildings at $600,000, expired last year, and setting assessments at $1,000,000 was proposed.

The city limits of the C.N.R. are valued at $1,000,000, and the building assessment is $1,000,000. The city limits of the C.P.R. are valued at $1,000,000, and the building assessment is $1,000,000.

Starving Eskimos of Richards Island Now Have Food

SEATTLE, Jan. 24.—"The great reindeer drive of the world," brought food within reach of starving Eskimos on Richards Island last night. Arctic the frozen Arctic Circle, 1200 miles from the coast, and it was too dark to herd the animals.

"If he could quite complete the drive, he'll be blaming it on the moon," said Carl Nelson, "reindeer king of Alaska." In describing the perilous trip across icy tundras, he said he is bound to do so now that the Eskimos are saved—they are assured meat and clothing.

A wireless message Christmas Eve reported that had made camp just across the Mackenzie river, on the delta, near Richards Island. They hailed because there was no snow on the ice, and reindeer could not cross here, also there was "midnight sun," and it was too dark to herd the animals.

HELD BY MOON. Last Saturday night the moon was full, my latest weather report said. "Lunar weather," said the forecaster, "is the best weather for the reindeer." The reindeer were held by the moon, and they were not able to cross the Mackenzie river.

It was a misty good fight for the E.A.C. to give Canucks who already have clinched a playoff berth.

Incidentally, last year's champion reported a highly enjoyable tour through the coal towns. . . . They were entertained wonderfully all around and every one of them came to expect that they had to make their stay up there as pleasant as possible. . . . They think highly, too, of the teams they faced.

All fans around the city yesterday that had missed Tuesday night's pro hockey game between the Bruins and Bruins of the Bruins, kicking themselves. . . . They had missed the first display of the Bruins during the current season and one of the greatest in Edmonton history. Needless to say, they regretted it plenty for the customers that had been in attendance could not find little else. . . . It was a night of fine hockey entertainment.

Amateur officials and businessmen of the city gathered last night to settle dates and other plans for the holding of the Dominion boxing and wrestling championships here this spring. . . . They decided to hold the tournament May 9, 10 and 11, and are going to spare no effort in making it one of the outstanding events of the year's amateur sport calendar here.

Short followers around the city will learn with no little pleasure that the injury suffered by Jimmy Vines of Montreal Maroons, the collision with Eddie Shore, Tuesday night, was not nearly as serious as first expected. . . . The doctor attending him yesterday would probably be able to play him in a week or 10 days, which means that the injury is not nearly as bad as first reports stated. At which is great news for Shore's host of friends in Edmonton.

A story in the bulletin the other day on Jack Adams, manager of Detroit Red Wings, brings to mind the fact that the veteran pilot is a brother-in-law of a popular Edmontonian—Leo Tripple, superintendent of the Hudson's Bay Co. store. . . . He is an enthusiastic sportsman himself.

Defeat Eliminates Carriganites From Junior Loop Race

Leo Lemieux Gets Winning Goal for Canadians in Overtime Period

Edmonton Athletic Club's hopes of a playoff berth in the Edmonton Junior Hockey League were ended by a 4-3 setback handed to them by the league-leading Saseway-Canadians in overtime last night when they were topped further into the league circle as a result of the 4-3 setback handed to them by the league-leading Saseway-Canadians in overtime last night.

Up until last night the Clubmen had been in the thick of the struggle in the playoffs, providing they lost four of their remaining games, but the result of the encounter tossed a new complexion on the situation and it appears that South Side Athletics and Canadians will have to look for the coveted silverware.

Although both the Carriganites put up a bitter battle all the way and forced their opponents into overtime before admitting defeat, it was a great battle to win and a tough one to lose. . . . The club really battled as though a championship title was at stake.

Leo Lemieux, the Carriganite, scored the winning goal in overtime, but both forward lines coupled by rugged and effective defence, and stellar goaltending, all contributed to the encounter one of the best witnessed in the league this season. . . . From the face of it, the club, while it was replete with thrills and the good sized crowd of spectators who were on hand to witness the battle were given plenty to remember.

Just 20 seconds in the overtime period remained to be played when Leo Lemieux, petite winger of the Canadians, after gaining possession of the disc from a scramble in front of the E.A.C. net, rifled a hard shot past Saseway for the winning goal.

It was a heart-breaking episode to the many E.A.C. supporters who saw their favorite club tossed into defeat, and putting up one of their greatest battles of the season. . . . The Carriganite club, from behind to avoid the count and then continuing their stride went on to force the league leaders to come from behind to deadlock the score and send the game into overtime.

Comes Back Strong

Making one of the strongest come-backs of the year in National Hockey League history is John Ross. Returning to the nets of Detroit Red Wings, Ross played shutout hockey for 30 straight minutes and has been keeping up a fine brand of play since that time. He is one of the oldest veterans of the big-time circuit.

It appeared at this stage that the Clubmen might edge out the verdict, but Big Harry Robertson shattered whatever hopes of this prevailed when he thundered down the ice like a wolf bull and bore his way in close to beat Saseway, just 20 seconds after the E.A.C.'s last goal, and tossed the game into overtime.

Both clubs really put it on during the extra session and made a number of thrilling plays with their bids for victory. It was not until minute 40 and 40 seconds of the period had been played that Leo Lemieux broke the deadlock when he scored the winning tally from a scramble in front of his opponent.

DEBATING HOW ACCIDENT WILL AFFECT SHORE

Boston Fans Wondering If It Will Injure Eddie's Play

By Bill King
BOSTON, Jan. 24.—Thankful that Jimmy Ward's injury was not as serious as was first feared, Boston hockey fans yesterday wondered just what effect the accident would have on Eddie Shore, the Bruins' great spark-plug from Alberta.

Ward, veteran night-winger for Montreal Maroons, was scheduled to return here last night after receiving hospital treatment for concussion he suffered when felled by one of Shore's rugged body checks in Tuesday night's game here.

The Montreal player dropped almost on the same spot where Ward was felled, but he was not hurt. . . . The Bruins' great spark-plug from Alberta.

Meet Saseway - Canadians At Arena Feb. 2 For Exhibition Tilt

Considered much stronger than Wesley, last year's Saskatchewan champion, Saseway-Canadians will play in Edmonton against the league-leading Saseway-Canadians on Saturday, February 2.

Final negotiations have been made between local league director, Bill Harris and Clarence Campbell and the Standards management.

Canadians were picked as the team to play against Standards as a result of the Canucks' impressive showings in the league last year, having not been beaten in their campaign to date.

The team from the Saskatchewan city, although not as well known as the Wesley and Regina Stars of our sister province, are said to have both of their famed riders beaten for playing strength and class, and they appear to be a little better than the Canucks, from their knowledge of no defeats this season.

Three major attractions between teams from Saskatchewan have always proved to be a great draw, and again the Junior League has every assurance that a great game of hockey will be produced from the fighting young puckers.

The same will start at 8:00 o'clock and Clarence Campbell will be the referee.

SEPARATE RINGS FOR BOXING-TESTING TALKS HERE

Dominion Crowns To Be Contested For May 9, 10, 11

To Hold Great Ring Meet at the Arena While Strong Slate of Officials Has Also Been Chosen

Dominion and National amateur boxing and wrestling championships will be held May 9, 10 and 11 in Edmonton. It was decided at a public meeting held in the Memorial Hall last night. Officials were also named at the meeting, at which a large following of local ring fans attended, including leading business men.

The arena was also definitely named as the place in which the championship trials will be held. The arena was chosen in order to accommodate the large crowds expected to attend the bouts as well as all of Canada's amateur champions boxing or grappling during the three-day program.

TO BE PREPARED FOR GREAT RIVALS
A strong slate of officials was also named and preparations for the trials will be started as early as possible in order to be fully prepared for the dates of competition. It is for the first time in the province's ring history that the Dominion and National championships trials have been held here. This was only after several months of negotiation that Edmonton was awarded these trials.

The championships will be held under the auspices of the Edmonton and District Amateur Boxing and Wrestling Association.

TO GUIDE MEET
John Michaels was chosen chairman of the boxing trials, while John Blue was named referee and referee-in-chief. Michaels was also chosen treasurer, while John Blue was named secretary. Michaels is head of the entry committee, and John Blue is head of the publicity committee.

Chairmen of these three committees have full power to select and to the number of persons required in the various committees of which they are leaders.

It was originally thought that the trials would be held in April, but the officials and those attending the meetings were unanimous in favor of holding the trials in May, owing to the better weather conditions which they later date.

LETTERS RECEIVED
At the meeting letters from prominent men, accepting offices and various committees, were read. Hon. R. J. Macdonald, M.P., and W. I. Munro and several other letters were received by officials of the E.D.A.B.W.A.

Closing date for entries was set at noon on Wednesday, May 1, and those wishing to enter for the trials will meet with the secretary, W. I. Munro, at 1120 St. James street, on telephone 7151.

FALCONS TAKE DECISION OVER BISON SEXTET

Cleveland Captures Ice Tilt From Buffalo by 3-2 Margin

CLEVELAND, Jan. 24.—Cleveland Falcons of the International hockey league took a 3-2 decision over the Buffalo Bisons last night in a goal by Spurr. The victory was secured by three tallies in the final period.

Flushed by Brophy, Benson and Chaffey, Vail took the puck in mid-air, skated to the net and put a fast shot past the Veterans Tangle, Buffalo goalie.

Victory put Cleveland in third place in the league after the Buffalo Bisons, who were defeated by the Falcons in the first period, Fred Roberts, son, Cleveland's new defense man, led a four-man rush that resulted in the point for the Falcons. The Bisons' powerful offense began picking them apart after several passes in front of the goal, George Macdonald, the puck into the corner of the cage.

A goal by Cook, fed by Daley, sent the Falcons in the lead in the third frame. The Bisons immediately turned on the power and a steaming shot by Roth gave Buffalo a narrow chance for a possible victory.

WINDSOR TIES DETROIT CLUB IN PUCK CLASH

Bulldogs Narrowly Miss Victory in Battle with Olympics

WINDSOR, Jan. 24.—Despite a decided advantage in man power and playing talent, Detroit Olympics were forced to accept a 1-1 overtime tie with Windsor Bulldogs in the greatest puck chasing spectacle of the 1934-35 international hockey league season here last night.

From a Windsor standpoint the end was very unsatisfactory because of a decision of Referee Guy Smith in disallowing a goal by Johnny Gallagher of Kenora, mid-western Ontario, the second period. Gallagher scored the winning goal for the Bulldogs, but the referee ruled that the goal was not in play as it was taken from a player who was not in play.

Plans Made for Bonspiel at Red Deer

RED DEER, Jan. 24.—Central Alberta's Bonspiel will celebrate its twenty-fifth birthday next week when the Red Deer Curling Club's annual event opens on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, January 29, 30 and 31. Everything indicates that the event will be one of the best in the country's five years history of the bonspiel.

There will be a large number of out-of-town curlers for the event, and the club members will have little trouble in keeping the ice hard if present weather continues. Club directors are doing what they can to have the weather cooperate for their big event.

The primary and two secondary events and the Grand Aggregate are offered. The Grand Aggregate, the first and best of the bonspiel, is the one which the club members are most anxious to see. It is a game of skill and strategy, and the club members are most anxious to see it.

ARRANGE DRAW
In order to get their program well lined up, the club members have arranged a draw for the event. The draw will be held on Tuesday, January 29, and from then on play will go ahead as fast as possible. There will be five draws played every day.

Referees will be well looked after by members of the Ladies Curling Club.

There is ample hotel accommodation in Red Deer and outside curlers will be well taken care of. The curling rink has been improved this winter and the curlers have a real comfort in the rink.

View-president Jack Knight is one of the best workers in the province for the curling and is doing a splendid job for the curling. He is a member of the Red Deer Curling Club and is a member of the curling club.

Seymour Hicks plays the role of a curler in the "Secret of Victory" feature film which is being shown at the Victoria Theatre.

Coach Dobson of the red and black striped crew was more than satisfied with the team's performance. The team was given for a time, they came out from behind twice to even up things.

Having no trophy to battle for, members of the Garryn Bros. hockey team were disappointed in the result of the game. The team was given for a time, they came out from behind twice to even up things.

McDonald Commercial has not sent their senior puck squad into action yet. The only game they have been scheduled to play was called off on account of the cold weather.

The girls will open their basketball schedule early next week. Both junior and senior divisions have been set up to compete with the girls of the north and south.

After finishing around with the cage games for quite a few years, Garryn has finally gone for it seriously. They should open at least one of the southern championship games.

Lodge is scheduled to play a regular game with the Victoria Terriers tonight at the Victoria gym at eight o'clock. In their last meeting the Terriers came out on top by a comfortable margin.

Which all sums up what due to the fact that the curling club is one of the oldest in the province, it is not too much to expect that the club members will have little trouble in keeping the ice hard if present weather continues.

Good Prize List Offered In Central Alberta 'Spil

CALGARY, Jan. 24.—Calgary's professional hockey club marked up their first home victory this year Wednesday, by defeating Seattle's Seattle Seahawks 5-1 in a Northwest Professional Hockey League game. It was the first time since the club's formation that they have won a game at home.

Calgary's first goal was a gift. Smoke Harris sent a hard pass out from a corner that bounded into Seattle's goalkeeper, knocked into the net off his stick. There was no doubt about the others, as Calgary ran wild in the first half of the third period, scoring four goals in seven minutes.

SCORES AGAIN
Harris got his second goal of the night on a sharp shot. Pete Stude built in a strong goal for Calgary's first goal. The Seattle Seahawks, who were defeated by Calgary, were defeated by Calgary.

SIMPSON NOW CHANGED MAN, SAY REPORTS
American Boss Becomes Fire Arrester Instead Of Passive Guy
By GEORGE MAGUIRE
NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The quiet-spoken, unassuming Joe Simpson is no more. Replacing him today is a personage players of the New York American National Hockey League club, newspapermen and hockey fans have never seen before.

The transformation came about in the American dressing room Tuesday night following the star spangled team's defeat by Chicago Black Hawks.

THREATENS TO ACT
"I'll fire everyone of you," thundered Bull Simpson, seemingly addressing members of the second line and a certain defense man, more than the others.

Victoria went in more for spectacular rather than solid. Kuchinski ratted the first one between the pipes. "Well, that's a good start," said the coach.

Coach Dobson of the red and black striped crew was more than satisfied with the team's performance. The team was given for a time, they came out from behind twice to even up things.

Having no trophy to battle for, members of the Garryn Bros. hockey team were disappointed in the result of the game. The team was given for a time, they came out from behind twice to even up things.

McDonald Commercial has not sent their senior puck squad into action yet. The only game they have been scheduled to play was called off on account of the cold weather.

The girls will open their basketball schedule early next week. Both junior and senior divisions have been set up to compete with the girls of the north and south.

After finishing around with the cage games for quite a few years, Garryn has finally gone for it seriously. They should open at least one of the southern championship games.

JONES' FARM IS GRIEF FOR SURVEYORS

Melee at Fallis Described At Assault Trial in Court

A surveyor who was running a line was nearly run off instead, when he met the fighting Joneses of Fallis, according to evidence given before Mr. Justice Ives in criminal court on Wednesday afternoon, when the trial of Albert Jones and his mother, Mrs. Matilda Jones, got under way. E. B. Coatswell, K.C., is prosecuting for the crown, and C. F. Newell, K.C., is defending the accused, who are charged with assaulting bodily and with causing bodily harm to one Percy Braithwaite.

It is alleged that the Jones family greeted B. F. Mitchell and a survey party doing private surveying here for one, William Hayes, with uplifted cudgels and a leveled rifle, and that a brisk melee developed when the Joneses barred the way to the surveyors, after they had already cut one line through the brush on the Jones' three-acre farm.

the Joneses some time ago, but had never received any money. Hayes denied that there was any ransom against the Joneses as far as he was concerned, or that he had contemptuously referred to them as squatters who had no right on this two accused taking the leading part in the wordy warfare. Albert was alleged to have held a single shot

Alleging that threats of "you'll be clubbed to death" and "the three boys are all crack shots with the rifle" had been made against him, Mitchell said that he had been struck a blow over the head which slightly dazed him. Then he ordered Brian to wrest the rifle from Alpert Jones. Brian, while struggling for possession of the rifle, had been belabored by Mrs. Jones. Mitchell

Members of the jury are: E. M. Kiefer, H. A. Klendall, J. G. Kennedy, Dan S. Currie, H. S. H. Johnson and Mert Jackson.

Fairs Association

WINNIPEG, Jan. 24.—Irwin Dean, Estevan, Sask., was elected president of the Western Canada Fairs Association at its annual meeting here last night.

He was elected first vice-president; H. F. Hedley, Melfort, Sask. second vice-president; S. E. Heckbert, Vermilion, Alta. third vice-president; and Keith Stewart, Portage La Prairie, Man., secretary-treasurer.

A revolutionary outbreak in Spain, brought tragically to light.

It used to be said in the old C.E.F. that if ever you got sent to the "glass-house" or to Wandsworth military prison in England, you would meet up with non-commissioned officers who would broadcast "hearer's" that was the expression which would break the heart of the toughest hombre. Those bull-ringing maestros must have transferred to the French foreign legion. "Break your hearer?" asked a legionnaire.

"Ich habe mein Herz in Heidelberg verloren!" All of them in that working party were singing it. So they must have all been Germans. Can you imagine a company of soldiers in Germany singing "Quand l'adieu vient nous servir à boire"? Unimaginable! The French don't are what the legionnaires sing though. For the legionnaires are pacifying Morocco for France."

The ace of trumps was led. West moved out by discarding a low spade. South held no more trumps, having used them twice ruffed. At the same time, West had discarded a low spade. South was left with a trump and dummy's 10. The Q of diamonds was led, picking up the last-remaining held diamond. At the dealer had to do was to lead off dummy's 3 good clubs, enabling the dealer to discard all losers in hearts and spades. South just fulfilled the contract of 3-diamonds doubled.

Before considering that one's show fulfilled a contract consider whether ended up by disbanding a low band. South held no more trump cards. South led and took eight of the ninth trick, a spade was led and South took the next two. The 54 of diamonds was led, picking up the last diversity held diamond. All the "dealer" had left was the 10 of diamonds, 2 good clubs, enabling the dealer to disband the losers in hearts and spades. South just fulfilled the contract of 3-diamonds doubled.

Before South could make a skillful playing a contract, consider whether the dealer had left a "trap" for you. In this case, the dealer was leading the club, offering to clear the best chance to go game. The dealer was leading the club and not produced a less pleasant result.
